Please inform your server about any dietary restrictions or preferences, and whenever possible, the chef will accommodate. If you would like to know about our local offerings, weekly specials, or upcoming events, please check our Facebook page, website or call for more information. The Chef's Special menu is available daily, for lunch and dinner, though certain items may not be available throughout the week. Whenever possible our special menu features local ingredients, purchased weekly from small farms, and as such, certain items may only be available for a limited time.

All menu items and prices are subject to change to maintain standards of freshness and quality

Calling ahead is highly recommended for carry out orders of more than a pound or a quart of a given item. We make most items from scratch daily and especially during peak hours we may not have enough on hand to fill large orders.

If these bulk offerings do not fit your individual needs, please ask to speak to someone regarding other options for catering and carry-out. Delivery is available for large carry-out orders, as well as numerous options for catered events or concessions. Want something you don't see here? Ask to speak to a manager or our chef about other options for catered events. We have something for every event from weddings and intimate upscale dinners, to casual family gatherings or work functions; fifty people or three hundred, we can accommodate. Our dining room and patio are available for private functions on Sundays, when we are closed for regular business.
